

Overview

The following outlines a suggested pace for the use of APrenons 2nd edition in a one year course to prepare students for the AP® French Language and Culture exam.* Although it is based on an academic year that is divided into two equal semesters, it may be adapted to suit your school's academic year, be it a traditional schedule with daily periods of 45 to 50 minutes or a block schedule. Whether your course meets three, four or five times per week, the days and assignments can be adjusted accordingly.

The pace presented below is based on an average 180-day academic year (36 weeks). This allows for approximately three to three and one half weeks per chapter. It is suggested to intersperse the Leçon 1 activities with the Leçon 2, 3, and 4 activities to provide variety in instruction and substantial practice on tasks resembling those of the AP® French Language and Culture Exam. The Leçon 1 activities are divided into task-based objectives, each beginning with an input in the interpretive mode (oral and /or written) and culminating with an assessment (the last exercise of each objective) in either the interpersonal or presentational mode (modes are referred to in the Teacher's Edition). The Leçon 2 and 3 activities are modeled after the seven tasks on the AP® exam: Interpretive Communication: Print Texts, Interpretive Communication: Print & Audio Texts, Interpretive Communication: Audio Texts, Interpersonal Writing: E-mail Reply, Presentational Writing: Persuasive Essay, Interpersonal Speaking: Conversation, Presentational Speaking: Cultural Comparison. The Themes and Contexts (primary, secondary, and tertiary, if applicable) are indicated in the chart below as well as the Teacher's Edition, Annexe G, p. 592. A quick reference to the primary Themes/Contexts is found in both the Student Edition and Teacher's Edition, Annexe C, p. 533. Teachers may choose to use the tasks in Leçon 2 for classwork and to save Leçon 3 activities to use as assessments. Leçon 4 is found on the Learning Site at learningsite.waysidepublishing.com, and provides supplementary activities and exercises centered around the themes addressed in each chapter. Vocabulary flashcards can be used for practice throughout the chapter on the Learning Site, Leçon 4. These could be studied as a body of vocabulary or as needed in the context of materials chosen.

As students and classes vary greatly, teachers may not have time to do all of the activities in the book during class and are encouraged to have students work with the materials on the Learning Site and do tasks not covered in class on their own as homework or for enrichment.

Teachers should refer to the APrenons 2nd Edition Teacher's Edition for more in-depth suggestions for how to work with the materials contained in the book. This Pacing and Correlation Guide provides an overview of one set of options for working with the book. However, the text offers flexibility and there are different ways of approaching the content of the AP® French Language and Culture exam.
